

The proposed rules, if as rumored, would tend to destroy democracy. It is therefore imperative that they not be decided upon without the consent of the governed. Consent is not possible without knowledge. Therefore it is imperative that any consideration be postponed until publication and adequate time for public consideration and reaction.

Please DO NOT RUSH TO JUDGEMENY. To do so is to intentionally show disregard for the will of the people.